

Exclusion Policy (Ingfield Manor School)

Policy Implemented: September 2023
Last Reviewed: September 2023
Next Review: September 2025

1. Summary

At Ingfield Manor school, we understand that positive behaviour and student-centred approaches are essential for promoting a high-quality education and inclusivity. We understand that a student's challenging behaviour may be reflective of their individual needs and therefore, may not be a choice that they are making. We see behaviour as a way of communication and aim to encourage all students to express themselves safely. While we seek to support our students via our behaviour policy, (and where appropriate individual behaviour support plans) the school recognises that the suspension and/or exclusion of students may be necessary.

Suspension / Exclusion will only ever be used as a very last resort, where a student has consistently demonstrated hazardous or challenging behaviours.

Excluding a student may also be required in instances where allowing the student to remain in school would be damaging to the education and welfare of themselves or others; in all cases, excluding students should only be used as a means of last resort and the student's welfare will always be the primary consideration.

This policy sets out the responsibilities of the Principal, and the procedures to be followed in any instance of suspension / exclusion. Ingfield Manor school will always consider a range of support systems, and/or advice, in collaboration with parents/cares before making any decision to exclude a student. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Individual behaviour plans/risk assessments
- Support from external agencies e.g.; Educational Psychology,

- Child and adolescent mental health services “CAMHS”,
- Behaviour support services e.g Aspens,
- Positive behavioural support team advice,
- Targeted support strategies ie. Early Help Offer/advice,
- Referrals to the school counsellor,
- Targeted 1:1 or small group work
- Emergency annual review
- Temporary suspensions

Aims

Our school aims to ensure that:

- All avenues of support for students and their families will be explored before a decision to exclude is made
- Parent/carer and student voice is listened to
- All students in school are safe and happy
- The suspension and exclusions process is applied fairly and consistently
- The suspension and exclusions process is understood by all involved
- Students do not become NEET (not in education, employment or training)

The decision to exclude

Only the Principal, or acting Principal, can exclude a student from school. This may take the form of a fixed term (temporary) exclusion (suspension), or a permanent one. A permanent exclusion will be taken as a last resort. Our school is aware that off-rolling is unlawful. Ofsted defines off-rolling as: “...the practice of removing a student from the school roll without a formal, permanent exclusion or by encouraging a parent to remove their child from the school roll, when the removal is primarily in the interests of the school rather than in the best interests of the student.” We are committed to following all statutory exclusions procedures to ensure that every child receives an education in a safe and caring environment. A decision to exclude a student will be taken only: In response to serious or persistent breaches of the school’s behaviour policy, and If allowing the student to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of others Before deciding whether to exclude a student, either permanently or for a fixed period, the Principal will:

- Consider all the relevant facts and evidence, including whether the incident(s) leading to the exclusion were provoked, or reflective of the student’s individual needs
- The school must take account of any special educational needs (SEN) when considering whether or not to exclude a student. We have a duty under the Equality Act 2010 not to discriminate against disabled students by excluding them from school purely for behaviour related to their disability. Principals and the proprietors / school governors (where involved) must consider statutory duties in relation to SEN when administering the exclusion process. This includes having regard to the SEN Code of Practice and a Duty of Care.

- The Principal will take all reasonable steps to ensure that the school responds to a student's disability so that the student is not treated less favourably, this includes a duty to make reasonable adjustments to policies and practices.

Potential Outcomes

Following a fixed-term exclusion, three outcomes are of consideration; 1. Re-instatement of student in school, 2. Extension of suspension, 3. Permanent exclusion.

1. When a student is to be re-instated, a re-integration meeting will be held involving the student (where possible), parents, a member of senior staff and other staff, where appropriate.
2. If a prolonged period of suspension is required, then this must be communicated in writing with clear timescales. The suspension cannot exceed a total of 45 days in one academic year.
3. If a student is to be permanently excluded then the student's local authority will be kept fully informed as to when the student will be taken off roll.

Permanent Exclusions can only be considered by the Principal where - allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the student or others such as staff or pupils in the school.

4. Definitions

Exclusion- School exclusion refers to the removal of a student from regular classes or the entire school environment, often due to behaviour or policy violations.

5. Principles

Safety

Students and staff safety is priority and thus exclusions may occur if a student poses a threat to others.

Communication and Collaboration

Ongoing communication between school staff, parents, and relevant specialists ensures a collaborative approach to addressing behavioral challenges.

Reintegration Plans

Following exclusion or suspension, a reintegration plan must be in place to ensure the student has a smooth transition back into the educational setting with necessary supports.

Continuation of Services

During an exclusion or suspension period, efforts are made to appropriate services to meet the educational and related service needs of the student.

Safeguarding

Procedural safeguards outlined in special education laws must be adhered to, ensuring that the rights of students with special needs are protected during the exclusion or suspension process.

6. Areas of Governance

This policy has been written with expert contribution from appropriate stakeholders. The Information Governance Team will monitor, reflect on and gain organisational learning from the implementation of this policy. This policy will be reviewed and updated two years from implementation unless legal changes demand a more timely amendment.

The application of this policy and its associated documents is mandatory for all services staff, volunteers, agency staff and all other Saludem representatives. Staff understanding of this policy and associated documents will be assured through training, assessment of competency and supervision.

Staff understanding of this policy will be assured through training and the delivery of awareness raising workshops as deemed necessary by SLT. The people we support will be involved in the review to ensure it captures the important issues for them.

7. Areas of Responsibility

Staff and Principal Responsibility

In all circumstances of suspension / exclusion the parents must be notified immediately. In the case of any student having an allocated social worker, they too must also be notified of the reasons for the exclusion. The funding local authority should also be notified at the earliest opportunity. The Divisional Director for Education must be notified of any decision to exclude any student.

A student may only be suspended for a period of up to a maximum of 45 school days during the same academic year. For the purposes of exclusions, 'school day' is defined as any day on which there is a school session. Therefore, INSET or staff training days do not count as a school day.

The Principal will provide in writing;

- Reasons for exclusion
- Timeframes ie. Period of suspension
- Right to make representations

Parental Responsibility

Parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without a good reason. Parents may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do this. This information will be included within the suspension / exclusion letter / e-mail.

In the case of a fixed term suspension, the time frames will be set proportionate to the behaviours shown and / or in agreement by consultation with the placing local authority.

During a period of suspension, work should be set for the student to complete at home, and expectations communicated to parent(s) around this.

8. Learning and Development

Salutem is committed to ensuring that all staff are aware of what is expected of them so that everyone is appropriately supported. Staff should speak to their line manager in relation to their learning needs using supervision and through the appraisal process.
